INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING A REAL PROPERTY TAX ABATEMENT APPLICATION

PLEASE READ AND FOLLOW THESE INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY

These instructions apply to an owner’s application for abatement of real property taxes for a converted condominium unit occupied by a low income tenant, or for the proportionate value for a unit in a converted cooperative housing accommodation occupied by a low income tenant.

The Rental Housing Conversion and Sale Act of 1980 (Conversion Act) (D.C. Official Code 2001 ed., as amended, § 42-3401.01 et seq.), see also Conversion and Sale of Rental Housing Regulations, title 14, § 4704 of the D.C. Municipal Regulations (Regulations), regulates the conversion of use of an existing property into a condominium or cooperative. Once the property is converted, § 42-3402.02 of the Conversion Act and the Regulations provide if the owner rents a converted condominium unit or cooperative unit to a low income tenant, low income elderly tenant, or low income disabled tenant, the owner may be eligible for abatement from real property tax so long as the low income tenant resides in the unit.

Do not delete or alter any part of the application.. Complete all sections. If a question is not applicable, mark “n/a.” If you need more room to respond to a question, attach supplemental pages. Mark all supplemental pages with the applicant’s name, the property address and the question number.

The Rental Conversion and Sale Division will review you application to determine your eligibility for real property tax abatement. If approved, the Division will certify your eligibility to the D.C. Office of Tax and Revenue. You will receive a letter from the Division advising whether you are eligible for the abatement.

You must apply for the property tax abatement annually. Your completed application should be submitted to the Division on or before July 1st to ensure you will receive the abatement for the first half tax bill due September 15th.

Completed forms must be dated, signed, notarized and returned to:

D. C. Department of Housing and Community Development
Rental Conversion and Sale Division
