FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

The District Opportunity to Purchase Act (DOPA) program promotes affordable rental housing by maintaining the affordable status of existing affordable rental units as well as increasing the total number of affordable rental units within the District.

To this end, DOPA requires rental property owners to provide the District of Columbia with the opportunity to purchase housing accommodations consisting of five or more rental units, as long as 25 percent or more of the rental units are “Affordable Units.” DOPA offers of sale should be submitted concurrently with, but are subordinate to, a tenant’s right to purchase under the Tenant Opportunity to Purchase Act (TOPA).

How Do You Determine an “Affordable Unit”?

An “Affordable Unit” is defined as a rental unit in a housing accommodation for which the current monthly rent, including tenant-paid utilities, is not greater than 30 percent of the monthly income of a household at 50 percent of the area median income (AMI). AMI is the median income of the D.C. metropolitan statistical area, defined annually by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, adjusted for the household size. The FY 2017 AMI is $110,300. Utilities include all tenant-paid utilities, such as heat, air conditioning, cooking, electricity or hot water.

If the property owner does not know the amount of the tenant-paid utilities, the chart below can be used to estimate tenant-paid utilities. The estimates below are updated periodically by the District of Columbia Housing Authority.

“Affordable Unit” Table for 2016
Number of Bedrooms	Occupancy Pricing Standard	Estimated Utility Allowance	Monthly Rent	Maximum Housing Cost
Studio	1	$160	$805	$965
1	1.5	$240	$863	$1,103
2	3	$323	$918	$1,241
3	4.5	$404	$1,113	$1,517

Example 1: Unit #101 is a one bedroom unit and the household pays $900 in monthly rent, which includes all utilities. This unit is an “Affordable Unit” because the total housing cost is below $1,103.

Example 2: Unit #102 is a two bedroom unit and the household pays $1,150 in monthly rent. Monthly rent does not include utilities and the property owner does not know the monthly tenant-paid utility cost. This unit is not an “Affordable Unit” because the monthly housing cost is more than $1,241 ($1,150+ $240 = $1,390).

What Should the DOPA Offer of Sale Include?

The DOPA Offer of Sale must include:

- the asking price and material terms of sale;
- a statement on whether a third party sale contract exists for the housing accommodation and that a copy of such a contract shall be provided to the District within seven days after receiving a request;
- a list of tenant names and their corresponding unit numbers, along with the current rent charged for each rental unit as of the DOPA Offer of Sale issuance date;
- a list of vacant rental units, their unit numbers and the current rent charged for each rental unit as of the DOPA Offer of Sale issuance date;
- a list of Affordable Units, their unit numbers as of the DOPA Offer of Sale issuance date and the owner’s calculations for determining the Affordable Units; and
- a statement that within seven days after receiving a request, the property owner will provide the following information: (1) monthly operating expenses; (2) utility consumption rates; (3) capital expenditures for the previous two years; and (4) a building floor plan.

How Much Time Does the District Have to Decide to Purchase the Housing Accommodation?

If the Mayor is interested in acquiring the housing accommodation, the Mayor shall:

1. provide a written statement of interest to the owner and tenants within 30 days of receiving the District’s offer of sale;
2. have not less than 150 days from the date that the owner's receives the Mayor's written statement of interest to negotiate a contract for sale;
3. have 15 additional days for a total of 165 days to negotiate a contract of sale if a tenant organization is formed and delivers an application for registration to the Mayor;
4. receive the same extension of time as any tenant – the owner should provide written notification to the Mayor of any time extensions provided to the tenant;
5. extend the negotiation period one day for every day of delay in providing information by the owner; and
6. have up to 60 days after the execution date of a sale contract to complete settlement.
