14. The undersigned acknowledges receipt of a pamphlet published by the Rent Administrator entitled What You Should Know About Rent Control in the District of Columbia, explaining the Act and any regulations that relate to implementation of adjustments in the Rent Charged and petitions permitted to be filed by Housing Providers and Tenants under the Act.

15. The amount of any non-refundable Rental Unit application fee is $__________.

16. The initial security deposit for the Rental Unit for which application was made is $____________. The security deposit shall not exceed one month of the rent charged. The security deposit shall be deposited by the Housing Provider in an interest bearing escrow account established and held in trust in a financial institution in the District of Columbia insured by a federal or state agency for the sole purposes of holding such deposits or payments. Interest on the security deposit shall accrue at the statement savings rate prevailing in the DC financial institution in which the funds are held, which rate is reset every six (6) months (January 1st and July 1st). The Housing Provider shall post in the lobby of the building and rental office at the end of each calendar year the following information: where the tenants' security deposits are held and what the prevailing rate was for each (six) 6-month period over the past year. At the end of a Tenant's tenancy, the Housing Provider shall list for the Tenant the interest rate for each (six) 6-month period during the tenancy. Within forty-five (45) days after the termination of the tenancy, the Housing Provider shall do one of the following: (i) tender payment to the Tenant, without demand, any security deposit and any interest due; or (ii) notify the Tenant in writing, to be delivered to the Tenant personally or by certified mail at the Tenant's last known address, of the Housing Provider’s intention to withhold and apply the security deposit, and any interest thereon, toward defraying the cost of expenses properly incurred under the terms and conditions of the security deposit agreement. If the Housing Provider withholds any portion of the security deposit, and any interest thereon, toward defraying the cost of expenses properly incurred under the terms and conditions of the security deposit agreement, the Housing Provider shall tender a refund of the balance of the deposit or payment, including interest not used to defray such expenses within thirty (30) days, and at the same time give the Tenant an itemized statement of the repairs and other uses to which the monies were applied and the cost of each repair or other use.

17. The Rental Unit and/or Housing Accommodation (if applicable) –

□ is registered as a □ boarding house or □ rooming house;

□ is registered as a □ condominium or □ cooperative; and/or

□ is converting to a condominium or cooperative or non-housing use.

18. If there is a pending sales contract for the Housing Accommodation and/or Rental Unit(s) on the date of this Notice of Disclosure, the date of the sales contract is ___________________. If the sales contract is accepted, the date of change of ownership of the Housing Accommodation is intended to be ____________________.

If you have any questions about this Disclosure, please direct them to the Rental Accommodations Division in writing at 1800 Martin Luther King Jr. Avenue SE, Washington, DC 20020. You may call (202) 442-9505 Monday through Friday between the hours of 8:30 am and 4:30 pm or visit the Housing Resource Center, first floor Monday through Friday between the hours of 8:30 am and 3:30 pm.
