(if applicable)

Dear Tenant/Applicant(s):

District of Columbia law requires all housing providers to disclose certain information about their housing accommodations. You should receive this form when you apply for a rental unit or, if an application is not required, when you enter a lease or other rental agreement. If you are a current tenant, you may request this information once per calendar year, and your housing provider must give you this completed form within ten (10) business days.

Your housing provider is required to maintain records of the information reported on this form. Applicants must be given these records along with this form, and existing tenants may request to view or be given a copy of the compiled records when requesting this form. See RAD Form 5 for a description of these records and details on how to obtain copies.

Housing provider: complete and attach Form 5.

The undersigned housing provider certifies the following information to be true with respect to the rental unit and housing accommodation identified above:

C. Monthly Rent or Rent Charged and Other Costs

“Rent” applies to units exempt from rent stabilization and means the amount of money received or charged by a housing provider as a condition of occupancy or use of a rental unit and its related services and facilities.

“Rent Charged” applies to rent stabilized units only and means the amount of money a tenant must actually pay to a housing provider as a condition of occupancy or use of a rental unit and its related services and facilities.

“Rent Surcharge” applies to rent stabilized units only and means a charged added to the rent charged for a rental unit under a housing provider petition and is not included as part of the rent charged.

The current monthly rent or rent charged (for rent stabilized units) for your rental unit is: $_____, and you are required to pay $_____ in monthly rent surcharges (for rent stabilized units, if applicable). The rent history for this unit is shown on RAD Form 4. Housing provider: complete and attach Form 4.

The rent for your rent stabilized-exempt unit will be increased according to your lease agreement.

The rent charged for your rent stabilized unit may be increased no more than once every twelve (12) months (required for rent stabilized units) or as provided in the lease, an affordability covenant, a long-term subsidy contract, a housing assistance payment contract, or a housing choice voucher contract.

You are required to pay a nonrefundable application fee of $_____.

Your lease requires or will require you to pay a security deposit less than or equal to the first month's rent charged. The amount of the deposit is $_____.

The deposit is or will be held in an account with a fixed interest rate of _____% or the prevailing statement savings rate of the financial institution in the District of Columbia that holds the deposit.

Within forty-five (45) days of the termination of the tenancy, the security deposit will be returned to you, including interest earned on the deposit if the tenancy lasts more than twelve (12) months, or the housing provider will notify you in writing, by personal delivery, or by certified mail at your last known address, of the housing provider's intention to withhold and apply the monies toward defraying the cost of expenses properly incurred under the terms and conditions of the security deposit agreement. If costs are withheld, the housing provider shall tender the remaining balance of the deposit and interest, together with an itemized statement of the costs withheld, within thirty (30) days of giving notice.
