A Joint Labor-Management Initiative

What is the Negotiated Employee Assistance Home Purchase Program (NEAHP)

The purpose of the Government of the District of Columbia's Negotiated Employee Assistance Home Purchase Program (NEAHP) is to provide down payment and closing costs assistance to certain government employees whose position is covered by collective bargaining. The program, a joint labor management effort, is administered by the Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD) and the Office of Labor Relations and Collective Bargaining (OLRCB) with the assistance of the Greater Washington Urban League (GWUL).

NEAHP is a grant. Assistance provided through NEAHP will be in addition to any homebuyer assistance provided by DHCD, such as the Home Purchase Assistance Program (HPAP), Employer Assisted Housing Program (EAHP) or any other housing program(s) for which the employee qualifies.

Who is Eligible for NEAHP?

Government of the District of Columbia employees who are in good standing and whose position is covered by the following collective bargaining agreements are eligible for NEAHP:

- District of Columbia Compensation Units 1 & 2;
- Employees represented by the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees; Local 2095 and the American Federation of Government Employees Local 383;

- Service Employees International Union 1199; and
- The District of Columbia Nurses Association.

Eligible bargaining unit employees must also meet the following requirements:

- Be a current employee of the Government of the District of Columbia in good standing;
- Employee cannot have primary ownership interest in any residential property within the District of Columbia for three years prior to making application to NEAHP; and
- Employee must possess a good credit rating.

NEAHP grant is subject to the availability of funds and the grant amount is determined by the employee's years of service.

In accordance with the D.C. Human Rights Act of 1977, as amended, D.C. Official Code, Section 2-1401.01 et seq., District of Columbia does not discriminate on the basis of actual or perceived: race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, personal appearance, sexual orientation, familial status, family responsibilities, matriculation, political affiliation, disability, source of income, or place of residence or business.
